The Tariff

Washington, D. C., June 19—When Oscar Underwood, of Alabama, was in the House of Representatives he built up a great reputation as an expert on the tariff; he became chairman of the committee on Ways & Means and his name became fastened on the Tariff law which which his committee complied and put through the House. Under that measure the country enjoyed the greatest prosperity it ever knew, and it remained for the greed of American manufacturers to find fault with the law. Mr. Underwood is now the Democratic leader in the Senate. He has written for the New York Times, the greatest Democratic newspaper of this time, a long article on the proposed tariff law now before the Senate. Space forbids its use in full, but here are some of the most pertinent paragraphs:

"I have always opposed in principle the theory of protection, and have leaned strongly to the idea that customs taxation should be levied primarily in the interest of revenue for the Government, and that all rates of taxation should be so adjusted as to allow a reasonable inflow of goods from abroad in order that the Custom House might have an opportunity to take its toll as they passed through and some degree of competition might be established. I have never contended that, in the interest of a revenue tariff, it is necessary to bring about destructive competition, but a tariff that fixes the rates of taxation so high as to practically prohibit foreign goods from entering the American market at all has been abhorrent to my ideas of the proper use of the taxing power of the Congress of the United States.

"There are some few low rates in the pending bill. There are some articles on the free list, but taking it all in all, it is undoubtedly the most prohibitive tariff bill that has ever been proposed in the American Congress, and the rates of taxation are higher and less defensible than any that have ever been presented to us in the past

"When the present law was written not only were all kinds of fertilizer, which are imported into the United States and are valuable in the development of agriculture, placed on the free list, but binding twine for the man who raises wheat in the West and ties and bagging for the farmer whose basic crop is cotton were likewise placed on the free list. Under this bill they propose to put these things back on the tax list, and there is no evidence that either of these industries has suffered from outside competition under existing law. Some of the fertilizers coming into this market and many of the commodities from which fertilizers are made also will be taxed, under the proposed law I am confident that the farmer will not be long in finding out these things. The items I have cited are simply illustrative. Others which concern the welfare of agriculture can be found all through the bill."

Buckingham

Off to the Summer Normals is the rule among the young ladies who intend "To rear the tender thought, to teach the young idea to shoot". Most of those who intend to teach school are going to Farmville.

Maysville school board and Slate River District board met at St. Andrews' school house to consider moving the school house, but the trustees in James River district decided to have a new house built and this seems to satisfy those who wanted the house moved.

Mr. John Horseley one of the school trustees in James River district is ill at his home and will probably be taken to a hospital for treatment this week.

Mrs. Fletcher Branch, who sued her husband for a support is not satisfied with what was allowed her in the Magistrates court and she will probably take the case to a higher court.

There was a beautiful marriage solemnized at "Fountain Ridge" last Wednesday when Miss Mary Lee Haskins became the bride of Mr. Hunter T Ferguson, of Appomattox. Dr Lacy officiated at the alter. Miss Kate Patteson rendered the wedding march, Miss Eliza Haskins sang a solo; Mas t Sam Glover was ring bearer. The flower girls were little Misses Dorothy and Emma Glover and the little Misses McKay; Mr. Jack Ferguson was best man and Miss Fannie G. Haskins was maid of honor. The decorations were beautiful. The wedding presents were beautiful and costly, after the ceremony a beautiful lunch and refreshments were served and the newly wedded couple left in a nice new car for an extended bridal tour. They will make their home at Prospect where Mr. Ferguson is postmaster.

Another June wedding is to take place at "Mount Rush" the beautiful home of Mrs. R. S. Ellis, where her eldest daughter will be wedded to Mr. Gordon Elcan.

Messrs. Williams and Miller expect to be ready with their new mill at Buckingham to grind the first wheat that comes in.

Harvest has been in full swing the past week and the weather was all that could be asked for.

Mr. and Mrs John Coston and Miss Minnie Rogers are expected to motor from North Carolina this week to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Glover.

Several times I have brought buyer and seller together by mentioning cattle for sale, and now there is a nice lot of fat cattle and fresh milch cows and veal calves for sale and only one prospective buyer in sight.

Mr. W. Lee Patteson and family have been moving from the county farm up to the new house on the road near Mt Vinco.

Misses Lewis, of Nelson county, visited the Misses Glover spending the week-end.

Mr. Hubard has rented the Ellis farm near Manteo and is moving in. There is a beautiful old brick house on this place.

Mr. S Shepherd, a son of Mr. Decker Shepherd, has been appointed a manager of tobacco warehouse at Dillwyn for the Tobacco Association. Mr. Thomas B. Hall expects to resume work with the Tobacco Association about July 1st.

Thrifty housekeepers got busy the past week canning and preserving berries.

Hixburg

Miss Carrie Hix, who has been so very sick for some time, has so far recovered as to come home.

Mr. J. W. Davis went to Rome, Ga., to witness the closing exercises of his sons "Prof. J. Talmage Davis" school.

Miss Annie Fore, of Greensboro, and Miss Rosa Fore, of Richmond, are at home.

Hixburg is again on the map and Governor E. Lee Trinkle has appointed Mrs. John H McCue to represent this State at the Womans National Conference which meets this month 22nd to the 29th in Providence, R. I., and Mrs. McCue will leave this Tuesday morning on this mission of important trust, and all that we have to say is that if she makes as an efficient political representative as she does a church and mission worker the convention is to be congratulated.

Mr. Joe Davis is spending this week in Danville with his former pastor, Rev. J. M. Moser.

Miss Culley James, of Graham, is spending some of her summer vacation here with the Misses Harwood.

The clatter of the binder has about silenced for this season around here.

Mrs. Eugie W. Gilliam, of Lynchburg, is on a visit to her home folks, the Messrs. Marshall.

Miss Janie Marshall is reported to be better this week.

Mrs. Arther Armstrong is reported as improving.

Misses Bessie and Mary Marshall, of South Boston are home on a visit.

The Womans Missionary meeting of the Appomattox Association will meet with the Evergreen church on the 28th and 29th instance.

Wildwood

The farmers are all very busy after the nice rains and so are the ladies since the berries commenced to ripen. Fruit is not so very scarce in this section and fried apples are no longer a rarety. The gardens are late but good.

We are sorry to note that Mrs. H. E. Clark continues sick.

Mrs. W. E. Warren, who has been on the sick list is out again.

Mr. Hubert Martin, of Lynchburg, was the week-end guest of Messrs. John and Tipton Paulette.

Mr. John W. Evans continues ill at the home of his son, Mr J. O. Evans.

We are sorry to hear of Mrs Tipp Jennings' illness.

We are all much grieved to hear of the death of Mrs. Mattie Tinsley, of Amherst, who was formerly the wife of Mr Sam Dickerson, of this neighborhood.

Mrs. Nora Farrar entertained a number of her neighbors and relatives Saturday night and among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Farrar, of Evergreen; Miss Louise Simmons, Mrs. W. I. Austin, Mr. Bob Jennings, Messrs. Clarence and Billy Simmons ice cream was served and all reported a nice time.

Mrs. Alice Pea, of Lynchburg, visited relatives in this neighborhood last week.

Messrs Luther and Whitney Evans motored from Brookneal Sunday to see their father and grandfather who are sick.

Mr. Hamner Moss is home from school.

Miss Hazel Doss was the week end guest of her cousin, Miss Effie Smith.

Vera

The boys of the neighborhood have made several unsuccessful attempts to organize a ball team. Hurry up boys and get in shape; remember the other ball teams are practicing and if you delay much longer, you will not be "in it".

There has been quite a lot of "coming and going" since my last letter. Since the warm days have come those who live in the cities are glad to get in "the sticks" if only for a day and get a breath of fresh air.

Mr. John Grow wife and baby, of Roanoke, are visiting the family of J. K. Megginson

Mr. "Johnnie" Carter, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Carter, has returned to Roanoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Reinhold Steffans, of Norfolk; Mrs. H. B. Foster, of Siler City, N. C.; Miss Lucy Menefee, of Toano; Miss Dorothy App, of Lynchburg; have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kinney. All have left but Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Steffans who are still with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Anderson and daughter, Helen, Miss Mannie App and Miss Meta Chapman, of Lynchburg, were also guests of Mr. and Mrs H W. Kinney for the week-end

Miss Lorene Reynolds who has been visiting in Lynchburg has returned and expects to attend summer school at Farmville.

Little Edith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Megginson met with a painful accident which just escaped being serious when she fell from a buggy in which she was riding, the wheel glazing her face and scarring it badly. Their little daughter, Nancy has also been quite sick, but is better at this writing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Reynolds and family spent Sunday at Red House.

Appomattox Folk on Eastern Shore

The farmers through this section have finished setting out sweet potato sprouts and a few are digging round potatoes the yield is not as good as was expected owing to the bugs.

Most of the good housewives have plenty of fried chicken, fresh fish, clams and crabs and splendid gardens.

Mr. Rexford Martin and Miss Mae Gladstone visited his sisters, Mrs. T. H. Layne and Mrs. B C. Sims, on Wednesday last

Mr. Gordon Layne and Mr. Marshall Hunter were pleasant guests at the home of Mr. Oliver Sunday.

Mr. John Oatwater made a flying trip to Bird's Nest Sunday.

Miss Mildred Sims spent Sunday night with her cousin, Miss Willie Bell Martin.

Miss Modell Martin spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs B. C. Sims.

Mr. T. H. Layne went fishing one day last week and brought back a tub full of nice trout.

Miss Verta Sims spent the week-end with her aunt, Mrs T. H. Layne.

Love Affair Suddenly Ended.

When I was in my seventh year of school I became very much in love with a boy in the eighth grade. One day when I was at his house to see his sister he and a friend of his fixed a pail of ice-cold water on the top of a door. I was the first to open the door and the water fell on me. This was a sudden end of my first love affair.—Chicago Journal.

THE THRICE-A WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK
In 1921 and 1922

Practically a Daily at the Price of a Weekly. No other Newspaper in the world gives so much at so low a price

The next few years will be marked by important and historical changes in the life of the United States deeply interesting to every citizen. The Thrice-a-Week World which is the greatest example of tabloid journalism in America will give you all the news of it. It will keep you as thoroughly informed as a daily at five or six times the price. Besides, the news from Europe for a long time to come will be of overwhelming interest, and we are deeply and vitally concerned in it. The Thrice-a-Week World will furnish you an accurate and comprehensive report of everything that happens.

The Thrice-a-Week World's regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We offer this unequalled newspaper and Times-Virginian together for one year for $2.25. The regular subscription price of the two papers is $2.50

WITHOUT STREET ADDRESS YOUR MAIL IS DELAYED AT OFFICE OF DELIVERY

The Dead Letter Office has been in existence ever since Ben Franklin started our postal service. Even then people addressed mail to Mr. Ezekiel Smithers, "Atlantic Coast," and expected Ben to know just where Zeke lived.

Perhaps they had Zeke's address in letters up in the garret, maybe a chest full of 'em, but then it was easier to let Ben hunt Zeke. Today people are addressing letters to John Smith, New York, N. Y., or Chicago, Ill., thinking Uncle Sam can locate him, which is just as incomplete as was Zeke's address of yore. The Postoffice Department asks you to put the number and street in the address. It helps you.

Trinidad Col.

How do you expect the Postal Clerk to know whether you mean Trinidad, California, or Trinidad, Colorado?

ALWAYS SPELL OUT THE NAME OF THE STATE IN FULL IN THE ADDRESS.

"MORE BUSINESS IN GOVERNMENT"

This apt phrase was used in President Harding's first message to Congress and applies particularly in postal management where postmasters are being impressed with the fact that they are managers of local branches of the biggest business in the world.

Her Money Was Gone!

An old woman who lived alone had kept nearly $2,000 00 in currency around her house for years. She was afraid of banks.

Last fall she became seriously ill, and——

No, she didn't die. But when she went to look for the cash it was gone! Fortunately some honest friends had found it while she was unconscious and had deposited it to her credit in a bank.

This woman has now decided that after all the bank is the safest place, and, besides, her money is not idle any longer. It is now earning 4 per cent for its owner.

Let us put your money to work for you.

VICTORIES OF PEACE EQUAL THOSE OF WAR

Whether the task is the construction of a colossal harbor improvement project, or the administration of a newly acquired insular possession, the Department of War is always prepared to bring to the task a high degree of skill and masterful judgment. How "peace hath her victories no less renowned than war" for the military department of the nation is interestingly described and illustrated in one of an instructive series of articles on Our Government now being distributed exclusively by this Institution.

We shall be pleased to see that you receive the complete series, if you will send us your name and address.
